

AFTER DINNER SPEAKER

With the ever growing demand for variety in the entertainment world, finding the “right” after dinner speaker is becoming more and more of a challenge. How do you establish who is available and at what cost ? The problem is identifying someone “different”, and more importantly, interesting for your particular group.

We have researched speakers from all walks of life, be it a specialist in a particular field or a nationally known celebrity. We will quickly establish the availability of your chosen speaker, or make suitable suggestions as to who will meet your requirements.

Speakers from the sporting world, a captain of industry or just downright funny, The Entertainment Company has them all.

Would you like to hear what it feels like to be pilot of a 747 carrying over three hundred passengers when all four engines fail and you are at 30,000 feet; the thrill of stepping on to the Murrayfield turf to play your first match for Scotland, or how to make that first million ?

It may be that you would like to use a speaker to reinforce the keynote of your conference, or tailor the speech to your particular product. We at The Entertainment Company can arrange it on your behalf.

For more information on availability of speakers who will match your requirements, call us now on : 0131 659 6549.