

Max Gordon
Presents
MIND GAMES

ESP, Telepathy, Mind Reading are all terms that people are familiar with but few have witnessed a demonstration that would convince them that such things are possible.

What Makes the show unique is that unlike those performers who claim to “read your mind” in Mind Games, it is you the audience who reveal the information. Was it a hunch, a guess or some untapped mental ability? You decide!

Max will also offer £100,000 to anyone who can prove he uses stooges or confederates in any aspect of the show.

Max will not only demonstrate his own powers, but actually encourage members of the audience to flex their own “Mental Muscles”. We have all heard the phone ring and just before we pick it up we instinctively know who is on the line. We have all had the feeling that we are being watched and looked round to find a total stranger staring at us. Is this tangible evidence that “something exists”, Max will provide the key that opens the door to this sixth sense that everyone has.

Within the show, Max features his unique game show routine, “The survivor game!” Sponsored by The famous Grouse Experience. The winner gets a bottle of Scotch and VIP pass to Scotland’s oldest distillery.

Add a touch of humour to lighten the show and you have one of the most unusual entertainment “mediums” (ouch!) available today.

Max has been amazing audiences throughout the UK with his amazing powers for over 15 years and is without a doubt Scotland’s “original” mind reader. If you want the best book the original! Max Gordon.

as your next though may not be your own”*
